

For Immediate Release 05/16/08

Contact: Ginger Head Gearheart
 ghead@icfw.org
 (817) 870-1141
 or Kristen K. Borg
 kborg@phprinc.com
 (817) 924-2300

Canopy Meg and Dalia Conde Headline 3rd Annual Art of Exploration

Imagination Celebration Fort Worth and Wings Worldquest Host World-Renowned Women Explorers for Ecosystem-Themed Event

What:	Imagination Celebration Fort Worth and Wings Worldquest have joined together to promote women scientists from across the globe and bring their impactful work to our local community. Monday night at the Fort Worth Botanic Garden, Margaret Dalzell Lowman and Dalia Amor Conde will share the stage in this free, family-friendly event. Ms. Lowman (Canopy Meg), rock star of the botany world, has traveled the world through the treetops, and she will share her research and experiences on rainforest canopies. Ms. Conde, a Mexico City–born biologist living in Central America, is a jaguar expert and has studied the impact of changes in the Mayan rainforest for the jungles largest carnivore. Guests will be entertained by Grupo Pakal, Mayan Performing Arts dance troupe, exhibiting the native dance, music, and wardrobe of the Mayan culture. Photo opportunities available.
Where:	Fort Worth Botanic Gardens, 3220 Botanic Garden Blvd. Free admission Open to all ages
When:	Monday, May 19, 2008 Reception: 5:30-6:00 Program: 6:00-7:00
Who:	Imagination Celebration Fort Worth is an independent non-profit educational and arts organization established in 1987 in collaboration with the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Fort Worth Independent School District, and the City of Fort Worth. Since its inception, Imagination Celebration has touched over four million students, their teachers and families with its award-winning and exceptional programming. Imagination Celebration creates and provides curriculum-related arts/cultural educational experiences to students utilizing a network of professional artists and cultural arts organizations. For more information about Fort Worth's Imagination Celebration, visit their Web site at www.icfw.org.

--